

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, May 16. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 19.

Turin, April 29.

THe Enemy have not made any Motion in our Neighbourhood for some Time. Their Troops that were employ'd in the County of Nice, are march'd out of it, some Battalions excepted, to advance this Way through Dauphine and Savoy: The Duke de la Feuillade is expected at Pignerol, in order to take upon him the Command them. The Troops that are at present in Pignerol under Monsieur de Gevaudan, threaten to attack the Vaudois; but the latter are upon their Guard, and have taken all possible Precaution to prevent any Surprize.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 14.

Vienna, May 2. The Malecontents have not yet made any Attempt against Buda and Pest. But they are diligently at Work to perfect their new Fort near Pax, as well as the new Fortifications they are making at Newheusel. The principal Leaders of them have taken a Review of their Forces; after which they dismiss'd the Nobility and Peasants whom they forc'd to take Arms with them; and have retain'd only the regular Troops that serve 'em for Pay. 'Tis reported some of the chief Leaders of the Malecontents, and generally all the Nobility of Hungary are extremely irritated against Prince Ragotski, for keeping many French Officers about him, and holding frequent Councils with them from which all Hungarians are excluded; But of this there is no Certainty.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 19.

Vienna, May 6. We have no Prospect yet of an Accommodation with the Malecontents of Hungary. Advice is come, That Lieutenant Colonel Globner is got into the Fort of Fulawahr with some Reinforcements for the Garrison that was before in it, after having skirmish'd about 3 Hours, and repuls'd with great Loss, 22 Companies of the Malecontents that attack'd him. We have Intelligence likewise from Arath, That a Detachment of that Garrison commanded by an eminent Officer nam'd Teckeli, lately surpriz'd the Fort of Pissepek- put about 200 of the Malecontents they found in it to the Sword, and took 30 others Prisoners, with 3 Pieces of Cannon and 4 Standards, and demolish'd the said Fort.

Ratisbon, May 11. The 7th Instant arriv'd here from Deckendorf 4 Vessels laden with Artillery to be restor'd to the City of Ausburg; the Number of Pieces of Cannon in these Vessels is 76, great and small. The Count of Leuvenstein Wresheim, Governour of Bavaria, who is at Landshut, has settled a Post to go and come between this Town and that twice a Week. 'Tis talk'd some Troops will be posted between Landshut and Freisingen, the better to keep in Awe the Inhabitants of Bavaria; and that a particular Magazine of Arms belonging peculiarly to the Town of Munich, will be emptied (as the Elector's great Arsenal there has been already) notwithstanding the Magistrates and Burghers of that Town oppose it strenuously, alledging no Mention was made of it in the Treaty of Accommodation concluded with the Electress by the King of the Romans.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 15.

Hamburg, May 8. The Affairs of Poland continue in the same Condition. The King of Sweden persists in his Resolution to see King Stanislaus crown'd. The Troops of the Party that call themselves Indifferents, have, 'tis now said for certain, actually join'd the Swedes: Mean time the Muscovites in Lithuania receive Reinforcements daily. The Czar of Muscovy was expected to arrive at Wilna the 23d of last Month, with design to draw together a strong Army to drive the Swedes out of the Province of Courland. The Number of Swedes in great Poland is but 12000; but they are all chosen Men. The King of Sweden expects his Reinforcements from Schonen and Pomerania, by the End of this Month.

From the Paris Letters.

Paris, May 11 and 15. The Count de Toulouse, great Admiral of France, will in a few Days set out for Toulon, to take upon him the Command of his Majesty's Fleet. They write from Metz, that the Marshal de Villars is about to march the Army into the Field; that one Part of the Troops that compose it, are posted at Thionville, and the other at Saar-Louis, so that they can soon draw together at Sirk if need be. That upon Advice the Enemy are in Motion to draw together, and that they threaten to lay Siege to some Place, he has taken Measures to oppose them: But that 'tis very likely they will not put this Design in Execution, because their Armies will not find Subsistence in the Neighbourhood of any Place on that Frontier, our Troops having ravag'd all the open Country about them. The Dauphin had several Fits of a Fever last Week at Meudon, but having been blooded and purg'd is well recover'd; tho' he will continue to take Jesuite's Powder for some Days, to prevent any Return. The King walks very strongly at Present, and without Pain, the Gout having left him. The Count de Maignon commands the Militia Troops of the lower Normandy, and Monsieur de Bezons those of the upper Normandy. The 10th Instant the Duke de Charost, the Duke de Villeroy, the Count de la Motte, and Messieurs d' Alegre and Maupertuis, Lieutenant General, went to Versailles to take their Leaves of the King, being upon their Departure to their respective Posts in the Armies. The Preparations for the Siege of Turin are continued, 100 Pieces of Artillery, 40000 Bombs and 100000 Bullets are got ready.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated May 12.

Brussels, May 12. The 10th his Electoral Highness of Bavaria, accompanied by his Life-Guards, with some general Officers of the Troops of the 2 Crowns and several Lords of the Court, went a little Way out of the Gate of Hall, and took a Review of the Regiment of Cuiraassiers of the Count of Arco Velt-Marshall of his Troops, compos'd of 5 Squadrons, all promising Men and well mounted. The other Bavarian Troops are marching hither, to pass in Review likewise, and then to march with the Troops

Troops of the 2 Crowns, which are in a general Motion, to the Place where they are appointed to cannon till they are order'd to encamp.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated May 15.

Brussels, May 15. The 11th the Elector of Bavaria took a Review, in the Park, of the Battalion of Grenadiers of his Guards. The 12th he review'd, without the Gate of Hall, the Regiment of Cuirassiers of the Count of Cofta, making 5 Squadrons; and the Regiment of Carabineers of the most serene Duke of Bavaria his Son, consisting of 3 Squadrons. The 13th his Electoral Highness took a Review, in the Park, of a Squadron of his Grenadiers on Horseback, of the Regiment of Foot Guards, and of that of the Electoral Prince. All these Troops, and those of the 2 Crowns, which are on the March by several Routes, are provided with Tents, &c. for encamping.

Portsmouth, May 13. Yesterday Sir Will. Jumper, in Her Majesty's Ship the Lenox, M'd for Ireland, with the Transport Ships under his Convoy bound thither to take Soldiers on board for Portugal. This Evening Sir Cloudfly Shovel hoisted his Flag on board Her Majesty's Ship the Britannia, at Spithead; and Sir John Jennings hoisted his Flag on board Her Majesty's Ship the Royal Anne. We descried at Sea a great Fleet of Ships turning in for Spithead; and as some Coasters that are come in report, 'tis the Virginia outward bound Fleet from the Downes, and the Dutch Fleet from Holland; among the latter are 3 Flags. Our Fleet have this Morning loos'd their Fore-Topails.
